Village Trustees Will Get Estimates on the Proposed New Building

Fire Department Impatient Over Delay in View of Poor Equipment

Effort will be made by the village board to get an estimate on the cost of the proposed village hall and fire station so that steps can be taken towards a referendum on a bond issue.

Members of the fire department appeared before the board last evening asking that something be done. They proposed that if the village is not ready to finance the whole building that they go ahead with their part of the structure under the belief that they could readily finance their share.

The firemen said that some of their equipment is worn out but they do not want to replace it until they know they have a place to house the new equipment.

Plans for the new building were displayed. The ground floor provides for rooms for the board of trustees, mayor, the village clerk, police, jail and fire department. The basement under part of the whole building will house the heating system and rest rooms.

The upper floor would house meeting place and rooms for firemen. President George Bartlett suggested that the building might be kept to one story at the start to save expenses.

The board was not ready to take further steps on the matter because of the absence of Attorney George McGaughey, who is to be away for two weeks.

Al Herman proposed to the board that in exchange for deepening his creek between his bridge and Tiffany rd., he would grant the village an easement for its poles across his land to the sewage disposal plant. A committee was appointed to ascertain the probable cost.

Frostee Sno Company Remodels Plant and Will Start Production Soon

Will Manufacture New Line Of Color Illumination Ornaments

Work of remodeling the main building of the Frostee Sno factory is being rushed so that the factory can start production the latter part of April, John Olfendahl, president announced.

During the past three months Emil Hallwas and his associates have been changing the interior and adding a second story to the building which will be used for the packing departments.

At the same time, Fred Stahmer, the plant superintendent, has been remodeling some of the machinery, building and installing new conveyors for the efficient handling of materials during the process of production.

A complete new line of color illumination ornaments will be manufactured this season and it is expected that another three weeks will be required for the completion of special tooling for these items.

The steel building and large storage tank now located on the Maplethorpe garage property will be moved to a new location by the railroad tracks recently purchased by the Frostee Sno Company.

Jacob B. Drom Passed Away on Tuesday, Apr. 1

Jacob B. Drom, retired farmer and pioneer resident of Antioch community passed away at his home at 639 North Main street Tuesday, April 1, at the age of eighty.

He was born at Thawville, Illinois, October 25, 1866, the son of August and Ann Drom. Four brothers and a sister have preceded him in death.

He first came to Antioch in 1872, when his family moved to a farm on North avenue, and had lived in or around Antioch most of the time since, having lived at Pikeville, on the Hayen's farm at Trevor, Wis., and at Silver Lake, before moving to Antioch twenty-seven years ago upon his retirement. He was a member of the Antioch board of trustees for several terms and was always active in civic affairs.

His wife, Mary, preceded him in death, passing away four years ago, March 17, 1943. She had suffered a broken hip in a fall and never completely recovered from it. A strange coincidence dictated that her accident should follow one almost exactly similar, since he had also fallen and fractured a hip a few months before. As in her case he never fully recovered from the effects of it.

During his long, useful life he was active in all affairs which were for community betterment wherever he happened to be, was an organizer and trustee of the Liberty Cemetery association more than fifty years ago, and served on various school boards.

He is survived by three sons, Nelson, Antioch; Jacob D., of Lake Delton, Wis.; August, of New Lisbon, Wis.; five daughters, Edna, Antioch; Mrs. Floyd Horton, Antioch; Mrs. H. Ellis, Antioch; Mrs. Wm. Prohl, Milwaukee; Beulah, of LaCrosse, Wis.; fourteen grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will take place tomorrow, Friday, April 4, at the Strang Funeral home, and will be under the direction of the Rev. Warren C. Henslee. Burial will be in Liberty cemetery.

Rosing Re-elected as Town Supervisor Over Palenske by Big Margin

Voting is Larger than Usual Due to Contest and the Favorable Weather

William A. Rosing was re-elected supervisor over Arthur Palenske by a big margin in Antioch township's only contest Tuesday.

The vote was Rosing, 595; Palenske, 124.

Robert J. Webb, unopposed for road commissioner, received a total of 655 votes; Ed. C. Jacobs, as Justice of the Peace received 571; and Dr. W. R. Williams and Mrs. Eleanor Micheli, unopposed for re-election to the library board received 561 and 508 votes respectively.

Because of the contest in the office of supervisor and of the favorable weather, there was a much larger vote than two years ago, although C. F. Richards, town clerk, said it was not as large as he had anticipated.

Rosing made equally strong showing in all three precincts indicating the general approval by which his services during the past term have been received. Palenske made his showing in the first precinct.

The vote by precincts follows:
Precinct No. 1

For supervisor—Rosing 297, Palenske, 95; for road commissioner, Webb, 350; for justice of the peace, Jacobs 272; for library board, Williams 287, Micheli 275.

Benefit Bowling Match Thrills Fans, Provides $87 For Red Cross Fund

Antioch bowling fans were given a treat and the Red Cross benefited in the sum of $83.45 as the result of the exhibition match played at the Antioch Recreation alleys Saturday night, by the Meister Brau team from Chicago.

The crowd and the donations did not come up to the hopes of those staging the benefit match, but these deficiencies did not keep the visiting champions nor the home boys from putting on a thrilling contest.

The Meister Brau team rolled a total of 3,174 pins, Maricich bowling a thrilling second game of 287 and Paul Krumske the same frame with 257 pins. Krumske was the more consistent with a total of 725 for the evening.

The Antioch Recreation team came nearly taking the last game when Don Bauer chalked up a 237, while his opponent Lippe slipped off stride. The local boys did their best with a total of 980 pins. Bauer had a total of 644 for the evening and Ray Quadenfeld, 613.

Ed C. Jacobs, Red Cross chairman, expressed his appreciation of the donated services of the two teams and the alleys by Carl Gibson.

School District Gives Approval of Bus Service

Tax Raise Provides Hauling Of High School Students In Near Future

Members of the Antioch Township High school board meeting last evening reviewed the approval given them Saturday to provide a school bus service, but took no definite action in the matter.

The referendum Saturday afternoon resulted in a vote of 114 for the bus service and 24 against, Lake Villa where the service is more greatly needed, voted 49 for and 3 against the proposal while Antioch and vicinity voted 65 in favor and 21 opposed.

The question over bus service was placed before the voters on a tax increase of a half mill from which revenue is expected to provide and maintain transportation for 170 students living at a distance from the Antioch high school.

Whether the board will buy the three new buses and the garage to house them or rent one or more at this time and make the purchases later is yet to be determined.

The estimated cost of $20,400 placed on the purchases and maintenance last fall is now too low in view of advanced prices, members of the board said.

Walter K. Hills, president of the board, and Principal T. R. Birkhead both viewed the results of the election as an approval of the measure by the community but agreed that a larger vote on the matter would have been more of their satisfaction.

Cedar Lake School Dist. Voters To Meet April 9 To Talk Accommodations

A meeting of voters of the Cedar Lake School district No. 32, has been called for 8 p. m. Wednesday, Apr. 9, to discuss the alternative of consolidating the district with the Lake Villa Consolidated district or building an addition to the present school.

The rapid growth of the lake region and the increasing number of pupils has made necessary added accommodations in some form, Carl A. Meinersmann, secretary of the board, said.

The meeting will be at the school house and William C. Petty, county superintendent of schools will be present.

W. D. Ireland, president of the board, said that this is not an election and is merely to discuss a problem that has confronted the board and should be of interest to taxpayers and patrons alike.

The school is situated on the Cedar Lake and Petite lake roads between Rte. 59 and 21.

Mr. Krautkramer was born in Kenosha, Oct. 5, 1880. He was retired as an employee of the Western Electric Co., after 20 years of service, and for the last four years had resided in Antioch.

Attends North Central Meet
Principal T. R. Birkhead of the Antioch Township High school, attended the annual meeting of the North Central Association of Schools and Colleges at Chicago last week. He said the most interesting action of the association was to defer a decision on the Chicago schools until June 23 when Chicago will have time through newly elected officials to make the desired changes. The association has threatened to discredit the schools there because of political control of the school board.

Railroad Rates—And Railroad Progress

This country cannot operate without adequate railroad transportation—and the only way to assure such transportation is through continued investment in better rail facilities. The only way to insure that needed investment is to permit the railroads to earn not less than 6 per cent on the value of their properties. And six per cent is approximately double what the industry is expected to earn this year.

That is the substance of an exhaustive report on railroad finance made by the Bureau of Railway Economics for a research group of the Association of American Railroads.

The detailed report produces some important and little known facts. It shows that since 1921 the railroads have spent more than $13,000,000,000 on improvements—and that for every dollar paid out in dividends during these years, two dollars have gone back into the properties. At the same time, the railroads have greatly reduced their outstanding indebtedness in the hands of the public. Since 1932, for example, this indebtedness has shrunk by $3,000,000,000.

During the past 25 years, the rate of return on investment has averaged only 3-1/4 per cent—and that period includes both the business boom of the '20's and the war years during which railroad earnings reached a peak. Last year, though the lines carried the heaviest peacetime traffic in history, earnings were only 2-3/4 per cent. The recently granted rate increases, valuable as they are, will permit the lines to earn a return of only about 3 per cent for 1947.

The Supreme Court, in several cases, has held that earnings of as much as 6-1/2 per cent on the rate base of a public utility are fair and reasonable. And it is clear, from this report, that future railroad progress which is vital to the future progress of all business, depends upon rates which will permit the lines to earn at least 6 per cent—and thus put them on a basis of equality with other regulated public utilities.

The whole case was summed up by R. V. Fletcher, president of the Association of American Railroads, who, after quoting from the report, said: "All in all, no better investment can be made in the future of agriculture, industry and commerce in the United States, than rail earnings which make possible continued investment in more adequate and more efficient railroads."

A Better Buy

A news story in the Wall Street Journal tells of a large retail organization which employs 300 men to operate a "torture chamber" where merchandise is tested to find out "if it is as good as manufacturers crack it up to be."

According to the account, "The snap in a pair of 25 cent garters, the warmth of a winter overcoat, and the life span of a $400 hay drier all come under the watchful eyes of these critical experts, whose occupational disease is pessimism."

The purpose, of course, is to see that customers get a better buy for their money. And the effects of this are felt, in stores, down to very small ones, which have no research organizations of their own. Standards are established—faults are discovered and virtues proved—and quality goes up all along the line.

Chain stores have been leaders in the testing of merchandise in all fields. Retailers generally are thinking in terms of better quality, better service and maximum return to the buyer for his dollar.

That is typical of America's magnificent distribution machine.

The Low Down From Hickory Grove

I just been readin' something about socialized medicine. It is not so skookum. Uncle Samuel better leave it alone. Planned medicine is like the planned life of the turkey farm. The turkey has no choice of hatchman, neither has the patient any choice of doctor under the panel system.

I have known Charlie, our family Doc, for years. He has always looked after the family, and has always shown up with his black bag at every beck and call to remedy our ills.

The boys back on the Potomac are talking about putting Charlie on a panel system. Reason, something about gettin' more work out of him. I tell Charlie if this happened, if I was him I'd take in boarders and forget medicine.

In Britain Charlie would probably be one of the more efficient doctors. Well, under the panel system, lots of other people would like "free" service as his patients. The British have found, under these circumstances, that they have to limit the number of "free" panel patients a doctor can accept. Thus, many people are driven into the panels of doctors they don't want.

Under such a system, Charlie would be placed along with the more efficient doctors and I would probably have to take the doctor left for me on the panel system which probably would not be my choice. The boys on the Potomac better leave Charlie in private medicine where the little fellow can have him and his familiar black bag—that's the way Charlie wants it.

Fire Fatalities

While in the past few years there have been a number of catastrophes with exceptionally large loss of life, records show that about four-fifths of the total lives lost in fires were in private dwellings, apartment houses, tenements and rooming houses.

Appetizing Dishes

Properly cooked, commercial and utility grades of beef can make dishes as nutritious and appetizing as the more expensive grades. Variety meats, such as kidney, tongue or liver, are usually good nutrition bargains. All fat bought on meat must be paid for, so any extra should be saved and used for cooking or seasoning.

Tattooing Hogs

A method of tattooing hogs, developed by the bureau of animal industry of the department of agriculture, has many practical uses, especially in connection with marketing, disease control and scientific research. The method is simple, rapid and inexpensive, and appears to cause no material discomfort to the animal.

Wash Eyebrows

To rid yourself of annoying dandruff flakes in your eyebrows, give them a good scrubbing with a complexion brush and warm soap suds, and rub in a little olive or mineral oil before retiring.

Brush Teeth Often

Care of the teeth is one of the five major divisions of good grooming, and taking the time to brush and clean your teeth will repay you in comfort and appearance. It is not even necessary to buy tooth-paste or powder—you have one of the best of dentrifices right in your kitchen cabinet. Many dentists recommend a mixture of 2 parts salt and 3 parts soda. You can use the mixture unflavored, or flavored with a few drops of winter green or peppermint. Often a piece of dental floss is useful in cleaning between the teeth. A small tube obtainable from any drug store will supply your entire family for quite a while.

Naval Science Develops

Warships were not classified to carry out particular functions in battles until the second half of the 17th century, according to the Encyclopaedia Britannica. Before that time naval ships of all types and sizes took part in the action at the same time indiscriminately or when the most suitable opportunity was afforded.

Packing Eggs

Eggs should be packed in standard 15 or 30 dozen egg cases. Cases should be in good condition, have clean, firm fillers and flats and full covers for tops of cases. Do not pack any cracked, thin-shelled or abnormally shaped or badly stained eggs.

Use Knife Wisely

Never use a knife to cut wire, tin cans, kindling wood, boxes and other hard materials. Nearly all broken knives are the result of using them for heavy work that they aren't intended for.

Storing Fabrics

To store cottons and washable rayons, they should first be washed. Do not starch them as insects are more likely to attack them if starched. Ironing is optional. Fold or roll smoothly and store in a dry place to prevent mildew. Summer clothes which do not wash should be dry cleaned. Folded carefully on paper to prevent wrinkling and stored in boxes or bags which close tightly to prevent damage from insects or mice.

Libertyville-Waukegan Boys' Boxing Match to Benefit Crippled Children

When the Libertyville Boy's Club appears at the Waukegan Township high school against the Homer Dahringer Post Junior boxers the night of April 5, sports fans will find both teams at full strength for the first time in a conference match.

Libertyville will be out to uphold their prestige that evening, for they recently won their International bout with Toronto, Canada; at the Libertyville high school the night of February 22. In Bobby Mathews, Bill Weidner, and Jimmy Stahl, Libertyville will have three of the most clever boxers in the conference fighting to uphold the prestige of the Libertyville squads. The above young boxers will come in the night of the bouts at 115, 128 and 121.

The Homer Dahringer Post Junior boxers who will face those mentioned will be Jimmy Labus, Bob Millmaki or Bud LeDuke against Weidner, and Danny Bleck. Bleck will be after revenge that night, for in the conference last year Jimmy Stahl won two close decisions over Bleck, and this will probably be the bout of the night, for the Waukegan lad is determined to prove beyond a doubt that he is the most improved boxer in the conference, and will give an all-out performance against the wily Libertyville lad.

The Conference match at the Waukegan high school will not only be a great crowd pleaser to Lake County sports fans, but they will know in buying a ticket, they are donating half the price of admission which is 60c for adults, tax included, with a 35c admission for students, to the Lake County Crippled Children's Fund, as 5% of the proceeds the night of April 5, will be donated to that very worthy cause. There will be 15 bouts.

New Addition To U. I. Hospitals Will Be Built

Research, Teaching, Medical Service Will Benefit;
Cost $6,300,000.

Ground will be broken early in March for a 13-floor addition wing to the University of Illinois Research and Educational Hospitals in Chicago. Total cost of the addition will be $6,300,000.

"Medical service to Illinois residents and the teaching and research facilities of the University's Chicago Professional Colleges (medicine, dentistry, pharmacy) will be greatly augmented by the addition," Dr. A. C. Ivy, University vice-president, said.

Dr. Ivy, head of the professional colleges and hospitals in Chicago, pointed out that $2,200,000 of the total cost is available from current University appropriations. The remainder is included in the budget request for the 1947-49 biennium.

Bed capacity of the hospitals will be increased from 503 to 723 by the addition. At present there are 227 beds in the general hospital, 120 in the Illinois Surgical Institute for Children (University orthopaedic department), and 156 in the Illinois Neuropsychiatric Institute, which is owned and maintained by the department of public welfare but staffed and operated by the University.

Despite the necessary emphasis on teaching and research, welfare of the patients was uppermost in designing the addition, Dr. Ivy emphasized.

Besides its hospital facilities, the University serves an average of 350 out-patients daily in its clinics. Except for minor fees computed on a cost basis, these services are without charge to the patients.

To be admitted to the hospitals, patients must be referred by their own physicians or through clinics conducted by the University's division of services for crippled children.

Education Held Way to Solve Labor Unrest

"The job of improving labor-management relations is not hopeless. It is the greatest challenge of our domestic life.

"As education of the masses, America's great contribution to human welfare, provided the base for our labor union movement, so can it help solve our present discontents in labor-management relations."

Such are the opinions of Director Phillips Bradley of the new Institute of Labor and Industrial Relations at the University of Illinois.

He says that American workingmen and women want two things from their jobs:

1—Stable employment and a fair economic security.

2—Satisfactory and cooperative on-the-job relations.

"These demands are the result of the public school and the public library, which have given the people opportunity to consider their own positions," according to Director Bradley.

"Now the problems of labor are getting the attention of education," he says. "Within the last two years the state universities in Illinois, New York, California, and Washington have organized units specializing in labor and industrial relations, and at least a dozen others have made some steps in this direction."

"The university labor and industrial relations institutes engage in research, extension programs, and on-campus instruction. They can be very important in educating those in positions of power. Education, by breeding insight of problems, holds the key to good practice versus bad."

Graduate Course in Children's Dentistry Established at U. of I.

More and better dental attention for the kiddies is the objective of a pioneer step taken this year by the University of Illinois College of Dentistry.

A complete graduate course in pedodontics (dentistry for children) was established under the supervision of Dr. Maury Massler.

The course is expected to contribute materially to the number of practitioners in this highly specialized and increasingly important field.

Further, Dr. Massler notes, it will help train additional teachers, supply public health specialists who can further a much-needed program of preventive care for children, and stimulate research work which results inevitably in a decrease in disease.

The University's course is the first in any university to extend beyond six weeks and the first to lead to a master's degree.

Perfume Ingredient
The curious product ambergris, which has had a use in perfumery since ancient times, is a biliary deposit in the intestines of apparently diseased sperm whales. It has a high, though diminishing, value in the modern perfume trade.

Isolated Palladium
While working with newly discovered platinum in 1803, William Hyde Wollaston, British chemist and physicist, isolated the precious white metal, palladium, and named it in honor of the planetoid, Pallas.

Clean Knives
Always clean and dry knives thoroughly before putting them away. If a knife is to be stored and not used for a while, coat the blade with heavy oil, paraffin or lard to prevent rusting. If lard is used, be sure there is no salt in it.

WE REPEAT OUR OFFER .

To Prevent A Telephone Strike Let The Public Decide The Wage Question

The wage issue between Illinois Bell Telephone Company and its three Illinois unions can be settled here in Illinois—by arbitration.

A telephone strike in Illinois is being called for next Monday by the National Federation of Telephone Workers in Washington, D. C.—even though local means are at hand to prevent it.

Union demands would represent additional annual costs of $35,000,000. We would simply not have enough income to cover these costs . . . an amount equal to $2 per month on every customer's telephone bill. Wages of Illinois telephone employees are paid for by Illinois telephone customers; so it seems to us, that wages of our employees should be determined here in Illinois.

We proposed that an impartial board of Illinois citizens decide through arbitration—whether our wages compare favorably with community levels for similar work or whether increases are justified.

We repeat that offer.

If it is accepted, a telephone strike—with its inevitable harm to everyone—will be avoided. It can be prevented in Illinois if leadership and responsibility for public welfare are demonstrated by all concerned.

There is no excuse for a telephone strike.

"There goes the train that sends my boy to school!"

Did you know that America's railroads contribute, in school taxes alone, enough money to pay for schooling a million youngsters a year?

And that's as it should be. For what single enterprise has contributed more to American progress and living than the railroads?

The Soo Line System, for instance, paid taxes of over $2,800,000 in 1946—in state or local taxes. So we helped send a lot of children to school—yours included.

Railroading is above all things a public service. We like it that way, for in the Soo's daily stint of hauling the produce of the Northwest's farms, forests and factories to market, it helps us to be, as we always strive to be—

4,000-Student U. of I. Branch On Navy Pier

124 Freshman, Sophomore
Courses in Arts, Commerce, Engineering.

Chicago's Navy Pier, a city amusement center which was turned over to the Navy during the war-time emergency, now has been transformed into an Undergraduate Division of the University of Illinois.

This branch of the University accommodates approximately 4,000 Chicago-area students, mostly veterans, who otherwise would not have been able to continue their education.

Full courses on the freshman and sophomore levels are offered in liberal arts, commerce, and engineering, including architecture. One hundred and twenty-four courses are being given, with classroom work each week estimated at nearly 4,000 clock hours. A faculty of 219 qualified instructors has been recruited from the Chicago area.

The establishment of the new branch of the University in Chicago is a part of the University's expansion program to care for the State of Illinois's share of the national emergency in higher education.

Navy Pier is a well-known Chicago landmark. It has been remodeled to provide classrooms, four large lecture halls, 22 laboratories, a library with 10,000 volumes and a huge reading room, as well as cafeteria and lounge facilities for 4,000 students. The University has leased 373,000 square feet—nearly half of the Pier. The remainder is to be used for normal peacetime uses—shipping and convention accommodations.

The transformation of Navy Pier into a college required 350,000 man hours of labor in construction and remodeling.

The student cafeteria and a separate faculty dining room serves over 3,500 lunches each day. In addition the University operates three light lunch counters at convenient points on the pier.

Located near Chicago's Loop, the Navy Pier branch is easily accessible by all modes of transportation.

50 New Kinds Of Rubber Made At U. of Illinois

Fifty new kinds of synthetic rubber were made at the University of Illinois in a research laboratory established as a part of the government's wartime synthetic rubber program. This laboratory is the nation's largest university group working on improvement of synthetic rubber, and is a focal point for development of new experimental rubber.

Prof. Carl S. Marvel, who heads the work, said that in addition to developing 50 new synthetic rubbers the laboratory has carried out numerous other projects of lasting value, including: the establishment of the effect and importance of purity of materials going into synthetic rubber; improvement of the soap used in the rubber making process; and devising analytical methods for controlling production of rubber and thereby its quality during manufacture.

The laboratory at the University is devoted entirely to research on improvements in rubber manufacturing and new types of rubber, and involves no work in compounding, vulcanizing, or tire building. It operates in close co-operation with the rubber companies and with other university and industrial laboratories.

Whether any of the 50 new synthetic rubbers developed there will ever be adopted for tires remains to be learned. Some of the new rubbers show advantages for specialized uses other than tires.

State Pays One-Half Vet's Costs at U. of I.

Less than half the cost of educating veterans attending the University of Illinois is paid by the federal government; the balance is provided by the State of Illinois through its appropriations to the University.

The federal government is paying $9.65 per credit hour for instruction of veterans under the G.I. bill at Illinois. The actual cash cost of instruction at the University is $17.09 per credit hour, not counting cost of building and equipment. Counting depreciation on buildings and other capital assets, the state is contributing more than half the cost of the G.I.'s training.

Ill. Library's Collections Greatest of Any State U.

The University of Illinois Library has more than 2,500,000 items in its collections; is larger than that of any other state university; is third in size among American university libraries; and is growing at a greater rate than any other. It is exceeded in size only by the collections of Harvard and Yale.

Woman Leaps 8 Floors; Hits Auto; Tells of Fall

SANTIAGO, CHILE. — Olga Leiva, 25, a dressmaker, leaped from the eighth floor of the Central building here and hit the top of an auto owned by the minister of health. She remained conscious and told of her experience as she was taken to a hospital, where doctors said she probably would live.

Guzzling Ghost Is Now Without Home

His Taste for Beer at Midnight
Disturbed Travelers.

KUMBA, CAMEROONS, EAST AFRICA. — The ghost with a taste for beer, which had been disturbing travelers for nearly 30 years, has been left homeless by demolition of an old rest house here.

Tradition had it that the ghost was the restless spirit of a former German district officer, notorious for the iron hand with which he ruled the people of the Cameroons.

Known before World War I as the Johann Albrechtshof station, the haunted house served as the Prussian-like officer's quarters, district office and military barracks.

It was built 1,200 feet above sea level, on the lip of a drowned volcano crater, with a wide lake 300 feet below.

In more recent years, the building was turned into a resthouse for visiting government officials.

But so many visitors were badly frightened by the creaks and groans of the ancient timbers that the place received a bad name.

It was said that the only way to get a good night's sleep was to place a bottle of beer and a glass on a tray shortly before midnight. This seemed to satisfy the thirsty ghost, for he left the occupiers in peace.

In the morning, according to the story, the bottle was found empty, the glass encrusted with dried froth.

Skeptics who had never spent a night in the haunted house had amusing explanations for consumption of the unguarded bottle of beer.

They never could, however, explain why the cap was always still gripped firmly around the neck of the bottle, and never showed any evidence of being touched with an opener.

Mississippi Flood Help Is Authorized by U. S. Army

WASHINGTON. — Gen. Jacob L. Devers authorized emergency relief measures by army troops in the event of floods or threatened flood disaster in the Mississippi valley.

The ground forces commander authorized commanders of the 2nd, 4th, 5th and 7th armies to work directly with the president of the Mississippi river commission on arrangements for use of army troops and supplies during flood emergencies.

Under current plans, the army commanders would provide troops suitable for flood fighting duty, levee maintenance, protection and security measures, signal communication equipment and personnel, and all available vehicles, equipment and supply from army stocks as might be required.

The Mississippi river commission president is the army engineer officer in charge of the lower Mississippi river division.

Army troops also were used in Washington state to combat flood conditions.

Pilot Saves Airliner After It Strikes Tree, 45 Escape

MOBILE, ALA. — A Pan-American Airways DC-4 passenger plane, which struck a tree in an attempt to land at New Orleans, made an emergency landing here.

Some 45 persons were said to have been aboard the plane when it was brought down here shortly after 1 a. m. None was reported injured. The craft, arriving at New Orleans from Balboa, Canal Zone, came to Mobile on three engines after damaging its left outboard engine at New Orleans where bad weather prevented a landing.

Two Robbers Make Off With $250, Miss $50,000 Parcel

CHICAGO. — A $250 robbery went off without a hitch but the robbers passed up $50,000.

Two men entered a branch office of the American Express agency and cowed Mrs. Theresa Marchetti, manager, and James Murton, company agent.

They tied both with clothes line and cleaned out the cash register. But they left without searching their victims. Murton had been delivering a supply of travelers' checks to branch offices and had $50,000 worth in his pocket.

Woman Weeps at Holdup and Softens Heart of Young Thief

CHICAGO. — Ruth Fagan, lingerie shop employee, wept when a young robber ordered her to "give me all the money in your cash register." Miss Fagan handed him $11 and sobbed, "That's all I took in today." The man looked at his loot, then said gruffly, "Take it back, you need it worse than I do."

This 13-floor addition to the University of Illinois Research and Educational Hospitals will greatly augment teaching and research activities of the University's Chicago Professional Colleges—Medicine, Dentistry, and Pharmacy. Bed capacity of the hospitals will be increased from 503 to 723, and more research laboratories added.

Beneficial Fungi
Instead of being harmful, the small, raisin d, reddish bodies found on the undersides of leaves of citrus and ornamentals are highly beneficial in that they (the fruiting bodies of the red aschersonia fungus) attack the larvae of whiteflies and kill them. When a number of these round, velvety red bodies are found on a leaf, it usually means that every whitefly on the leaf has been killed.

Theories on Ironing
Heavier irons are favored by those women who believe that weight saves the worker from exerting extra pressure and that the combination of weight and right temperature makes for greater efficiency in the ironing process. Those who prefer lightweight irons believe that much energy is saved in lifting and that ironing success can be achieved by proper heat in the iron combined with correct moisture in the fabric without the use of added pressure.

Discovered Insecticide
In the 19th century a farm boy accidentally dropped a bottle of coal oil into a horse tank and noticed that the floating oil killed the mosquito larvae. Grown to manhood, L. O. Howard became an entomologist in the USDA. The discovery of the larvicidal value of kerosene is credited to him, and kerosene has now been one of the insect control stand-bys for more than 50 years.

Farm Travel
Farmers are the largest single group of motor vehicles owners, with more than four million passenger cars in use on farms. In addition, farmers own 1,110,000 trucks and hire another half-million to handle farm products and supplies. Thirty-four per cent of all trucks are used in agriculture. Most of the farmer's driving is connected with his work, as 67 out of every 100 miles he drives goes for the purpose of "making a living." Seventy-eight per cent of the farmer's travel can be classed as "essential."

Water Rusts Blade
Leaving knives in water to soak will rust the blade, rot the wood and loosen the handle, so keep them out of water as much as possible. Another precaution to take is to keep knives off hot stoves since extreme heat will destroy the temper of the blade.

Hardwood Bell
Oak flooring is produced throughout practically the entire hardwood belt, which extends from the Great Lakes region to the Gulf of Mexico and east as far as West Virginia.

Basement Steps
Make the edges of steps easier to see by painting a band of white paint on the edges of the tread. Also, paint the bottom tread solid white. A hand rail is a valuable safety device on any stairs, particularly on cellar stairs, because they are usually steeper.

FACT AND SCRIPTURE

Easter is associated with springtime. Barren trees come to life and sprout buds for a new cloak of foliage. Grass roots shoot their blades of green up through the old matted bed of sod. Flowers and blossoms add their colorful hues. It is springtime and our feathered friends come to lend their cheerful voices of praise.

Easter is one of the greatest festivals arranged for man. When Christ arose from the dead he brought new life and hope to man. "For the Grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men. Who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works. Titus 2:11, 14. "Christ arose from the dead, Rose triumphant as He said." Emanuel Thiele.
